

RSPCA APPROVED FARMING SCHEME APPLICATION PROCESS

Producers seeking to apply to join the RSPCA Approved Farming Scheme will need to complete the following steps. At each stage the Scheme and the RSPCA Certification Body will liaise with applicants to discuss and assist with the progression of their application. The time from application to Certification is at least 3 months but is dependent upon accurate and complete information from the applicant and effective action to address the findings from assessment.

